

Kenmore State High School Instrumental and Vocal Music Agreement

The Music Program

Kenmore State High School offers numerous opportunities for students to participate in our highly successful Instrumental and Vocal Music program. Tuition in woodwind, brass, strings and percussion is available at all levels to students. Students who undertake tuition at school are required to join an ensemble. There are currently 14 ensembles consisting of band, percussion and choirs. Membership of more than one ensemble is encouraged.

Fees

An annual fee of $220 for all students, regardless of how many choirs or instrumental ensembles you join. An additional equipment fee of $50 for Percussion students.

Fees may include items such as:

- Membership of as many ensembles as your child wishes to be in (some subject to audition)
- Professional recording of ensembles and choirs
- Music & music folder
- Bus transport to most events
- Entry fees to competitions
- Other organised performance opportunities
- Directors and accompanists
- Music workshops

Please complete the form. A separate form is required for each child.

Return via email music@kenmoreshs.eq.edu.au or to the Performing Arts Staffroom by Friday, 13th February 2026.
