

2024 Instrumental and Vocal Music Participation Agreement Form and Fees*The Music Program

Kenmore State High School offers numerous opportunities for students to participate in our highly successful Instrumental and Vocal Music program. Tuition in woodwind, brass, strings and percussion is available at all levels to students. Students who undertake tuition at school are required to join an ensemble. There are currently 15 ensembles consisting of band, percussion and choirs. Membership of more than one ensemble is encouraged.

Fees

An annual fee of $220 for all students.

An additional equipment fee of $50 for Percussion students

Fees may include items such as:

- Membership of as many ensembles as your child wishes to be in (some subject to audition)
- Professional recording of ensembles and choirs
- Music & music folder
- Vest & bow tie (senior ensembles)
- Bus transport to most events
- Entry fees to competitions
- Other organised performance opportunities
- Directors and accompanists
- Music workshops

Please check the boxes and sign the form. A separate form is required for each child.
