CONTINUOUS LEARNING: DAILY STUDENT GUIDE

Education for Life

Kenmore State High School has a Student Code of Conduct for all students that will remain in place during online learning. Students are expected to follow the KSHS Learning Policy and demonstrate the same high level of behaviour and positive attitude to learning online as they would in classrooms.

CHECK IN FOR THE DAY

- Get yourself in a learning mindset by 8.30am
- At 8.45am check Student Notices to see if there is any new information for you: https://qedu.sharepoint.com/sites/kenmoreshs/students
- Check-in before 9.00am via Education Perfect to confirm your attendance for the day
- If you are unwell, have your parents email absence@kenmoreshs.eq.edu.au

CONSULT YOUR TIMETABLE

- Follow your timetable. Teachers will have new resources ready for your scheduled lessons
- Your teachers will keep you informed as to what is expected
- Prepare an assessment schedule. Keep on top of timelines for drafting and assessment

USE ONENOTE

- Teachers will upload all subject/course material to your relevant OneNote page
- Check your OneNote for new resources
- Submit any activities required via OneNote (please do not email files to your teacher)
- Do not use any apps or services that are not supported by the school and expect teachers to be able to view your work

USE MICROSOFT PLATFORMS

- Log in to Microsoft Teams for your allocated classes - https://teams.microsoft.com
- For ICT Services Support, email helpdesk@kenmoreshs.eq.edu.au

LOOK AFTER YOUR WELLBEING

- Your Head Of Year will be checking on your school progress and general wellbeing
- Refer to our website for helpful resources on mental health and wellbeing
- Look after yourself
